South African Embassy Tourism Newsletter – December 2019

It's without a doubt that there is plenty to do and places to relax in the rainbow nation. You spend countless hours in the office, late nights or even work on weekends. That's why it's important for you to take time off when you can relax, come and explore South Africa – a country filled with magnificent places that will leave you rejuvenated and ready to hit the office again. Here are four top picks where you can take time to relax, get adventurous or simply let loose and have a jol.

COFFEE BAY

For a unique cultural experience and more, head to Coffee Bay in the Eastern Cape. This Bay is one of the many gems the Wild Coast has to offer. Whether you're into camping, exploring the Xhosa culture or merely taking in the breeze of the Indian Ocean, there's something for everyone at this unique part of South Africa.
